

Executive Forum for Federal Decisionmakers

"Can We Achieve Population Health?"

September 28, 2000

National Press Club - Holeman Lounge

13th Floor, 529 Fourteenth St., NW, Washington, D.C.

100 invited leaders interact, discuss, and debate the most challenging issues in health care.

8:30 Welcome and Introduction - Frank Best, Chairman, U.S. Medicine

8:45 Keynote: David Kindig, MD, PhD, Professor of Preventive Medicine, University of Wisconsin - Madison School of Medicine Author of "Purchasing Population Health"

9:15 Break

10:00 Panel Discussion: "Federal Agencies, Population Health, and the Future"

- Douglas Kamerow, RADM, USPHS, Assistant Surgeon General, Director, Center for Practice and Technology Assessment, AHRQ

- Donald Arthur, RADM, MC, USN, Deputy Surgeon General, United States Navy

- Jonathan Perlin, MD, Chief Quality and Performance Officer, Dept. Veterans Affairs

11:30 Luncheon Buffet

1:00 Keynote: Mike Roizen, MD, Chairman, Critical Care and Anesthesia Pritzker School of Medicine, University of Chicago Founder, RealAge.com Author of the #1 New York Times Bestseller: "RealAge: Are You As Young As You Can Be?"

1:30 Panel Discussion: "Achieving and Paying for Population Health"

- Robert Compton, DDS, Delta Dental Plan of Massachusetts

- Regina Rabinovich, MD, Director, Malaria Vaccine Initiative, PATH

- George Anderson, MD, MajGen USAF (Ret.), President, American College of Preventive Medicine

3:00 Reception

Co-sponsored by

The American College of Preventive Medicine Delta Dental Plan - StayHealthy.com - Problem Knowledge Couplers, Inc.