

AGENDA

Armed Forces Health Surveillance Center (AFHSC) and The Institute of Federal Healthcare (IFHC)

present an interactive roundtable for decisionmakers

Identifying Unmet Health Surveillance Needs of Recruits

March 12, 2010 8:00 AM-1:00 PM
Hall of States Building 444 North Capitol St. NW Washington, DC

Dr. Francis O'Donnell
Armed Forces Health Surveillance Center
Moderator

- 8:00 Continental Breakfast
- 8:30 Welcome: COL Robert DeFraités, AFHSC
- 8:35 Introductions and Opening Remarks: Dr. Francis O'Donnell, AFHSC
- 8:45 Setting the Stage: COL Karen O'Brien, TRADOC
- 8:55 Recruit Health Issues Gleaned from AMSARA's Work: COL David Niebuhr, WRAIR
- 9:05 Overview of Current Recruit Health Surveillance: Maj Cecili Sessions, AFHSC
- 9:15 Injuries among Recruits
  - Overview of Injuries during Initial Entry Training: Dr. Joseph Knapik, USAPHC (Prov)
  - Injury Surveillance at Recruit Training Command Great Lakes: CDR Robert Lipsitz, NHCGL
- 9:35 Group Discussion on Gaps in Injury Surveillance
- 10:35 Break
- 10:50 Respiratory Infections among Recruits
  - Adenovirus 14 at US Coast Guard Training Center Cape May: CAPT Sharon Ludwig, AFHSC
  - Surveillance for Upper Respiratory Infections at Lackland Air Force Base: Dr. Leo Cropper, Lackland AFB
- 11:10 Group Discussion on Gaps in Respiratory Infections Surveillance
- 12:10 Group Discussion on Other Gaps in Recruit Health Surveillance and Moderator Closing Remarks
- 12:30 Networking Lunch